It's time for a change

The Edmonton Journal

Sunday, December 09, 2007

When Ralph Klein was premier, most intelligent Albertans fully recognized that Alberta was a de facto dictatorship.

Ed Stelmach's government, on the other hand, is a different kettle of fish -- it is a government that reassures Albertans of transparency and sincerity, while at the same time producing the most anti-democratic legislation and engaging in the most anti-democratic practices.

Klein was up front about his ruthless dictatorship; Stelmach is sneaky.

Alberta needs an election and we need a spectacular change in government.
