Tory leopards can't change spots

The Edmonton Journal

Congratulations to the Alberta Building Trades Council and the Alberta Federation of Labour for sponsoring the "No Plan" ads against Premier Ed Stelmach. The messages are right on the mark and certainly give one pause for thought.

For years, Conservative governments have deceived, cheated and spied on us. The Conservatives have proven they have no ethics, morals, principals or integrity, and have never did have a plan to improve the health, welfare and well-being of Albertans.

After walking in lockstep with Ralph Klein all these years, how can Stelmach expect people to believe he is a different Conservative? Does a leopard change its spots?

A large percentage of Albertans say they want a change of government, that they don't trust Stelmach or these tired old Conservatives.

Albertans should vote for another party. Isn't it time to hand the reins to the Alberta Liberals? Their leader, Kevin Taft, is well educated and forthright. He gives thoughtful answers, not off-the-cuff remarks.

We need fresh ideas, new thinking and a plan to address environmental issues, low-income housing, overcrowded emergency rooms and long-term care.

We need a democratic government in Alberta. Now that would be change!
